

‘WILTIPOLLS FOR SALE’ SECTION

The ‘For Sale’ section on the website has the following features:

- KISS Principle. The page is being managed by volunteers who are not necessarily computer nerds, so the page by design is very basic and ‘Keeps It Simple Stupid’
- Basic Information. The page is designed to provide a few key pieces of information:
 - Breeder details
 - Brief description of stock available for sale or wanted to buy
- No Photos. There will be no photos or large advertisement areas. The aim is to just show who has stock available and where. It will be up to buyer and seller to liaise for further information.
- No Prices Shown. Again, this should be between buyer and seller. Advertisements on the page will not show prices.
- Free to Members. Advertising will be free for current WSBA members
- Wiltipolls Only. The ‘For Sale’ section is for Wiltipoll sales only – no crossbreeds
- Short and Sweet Descriptions. Members wishing to advertise will have a line of text up to 100 characters available per type of sheep. Members can have a line for:
 - Stud rams (including semen)
 - Stud ewes
 - Commercial rams
 - Commercial ewes, and
 - Lambs
- Expiry Date. All advertisements will have a three week period where the ad is visible on the website after which it will automatically be removed. This is to ensure that stock on the website remains current. Those wishing to keep their advertisement on the page will need to contact WSBA to extend the time another 3 weeks
- Regular Updates. The Committee aims for weekly updates to the ‘For Sale’ section
- Editorial. WSBA reserves the right to edit member submissions as required to meet the formatting and content description requirements.
- Scammers. Scamming is everywhere. WSBA will never ask you to send large sums of money. Like everywhere in the modern world – be aware!

How to Advertise.

- Below is a form for members wishing to advertise. Note the email for submitting your request. Your WSBA number is key to the efficient management of the site. Please include it in your submission or there may be delays loading your ad on to the site.
